LUTHER R. MARSH TO GIVE UP BUSINESS. ONLY WAITING FOR THE REPORT OF THE NEW, PARKS COMMISSION TO BE FINISHED.

retirement of Luther R. Marsh from the New-York Bar Association, to be followed by his retirement from the New York bar, deprives this city of one of her most honored and useful lawyers. For artyyears, five of them spent in Utica, and all the rest in New-York, Mr. Marsh has been in active practice. He has been associated in business with Heary R. Storrs and Daniel Webster. The firm with which he has been lately connected is one of the oldest and most reputable in the city, being founded in 1810, when as now it had a Wallis in it, John Wallis. Mr. Marsh's legal career has been one of deserved success, and he has done good service to the public. He was one of the Commissioners who appraised the damages of the Niagara Parks three summers ago. For the last six years he has been connected with the New Parks movement. He was vice-president of the committee of citizens who set it on foot, at the appointment of the Commission to lay the parks out he was made chairman, and since that work was completed he has filled the position of chairman in the Commission to appraise the values of the condemned larks. To a Tribune reporter he said yesterday:

When I get my reporter he said yesterday:

When I get my reporter he said yesterday:

A hall consider my duties at an end. I mean to spend the rest of my life quietly. I shall retire to my larm at Brockton, Lake Erie, as soon as the New Parks business is wound up and I can get the necessary arrangements made. I have contemplated retirement for some time, and should certainly have retired two or three years ago if it had not been for the New Parks. the damages of the Niagara Parks three summers ago.

THREE " YOUNG HEROES" COME TO GRIEF. Jeremiah Finton, of No. 415 West Nineteenth-st.; Edward McNamara, of No. 320 West Twenty-first-st., Edward MeNamara, of No. 320 west Twenty-first-st., and Thomas Coffee, of No. 452 West Nineteenth-st., each seventeen years old and members of "The Young Heroes' Club," were committed to the Island for two months at Jefferson Market Police Court yesterday. The club was organized two weeks ago and has a room, which is divided by a wooden partition from the celiar of William Mette, a baker, of No. 143 Ninth-ave. They broke into the celiar and stole some provisions, while drunk.
